Registration now open!

A promotional banner for the 18th BioDundee International Conference. The banner features a teal and dark blue background with white text. It includes the text "18th BioDundee International Conference", "New perspectives, new opportunities: Life Sciences and Healthcare", and "22nd & 23rd May 2018". There are two circular inset images: one showing three people in a discussion and another showing a man and a woman standing in front of a "vivomotion" booth. The "bi-dundee" logo and website "www.biodundee.co.uk" are also present.
