

BRITISH SCIENCE
ASSOCIATION

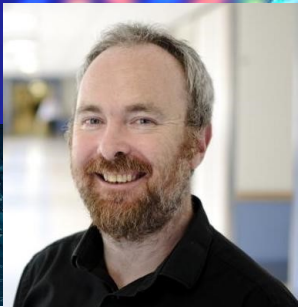

Tayside and Fife Branch
50th Anniversary Programme

Free Public Lecture Series 2017-2018

The Human

Genome Project:

Where are we now?

Professor Colin Palmer
Ninewells Hospital & Medical School

In 2000 the sequence of the human genome was revealed. However this was just the beginning of the story. The past 18 years has seen an explosion in research into how this sequence works and how differences in the sequence seen between individuals influences all aspects of health and disease. Is precision medicine now an achievable goal?

Wednesday 21 February 2018, 7.00 pm

D'Arcy Thompson Lecture Theatre
Tower Building, University of Dundee

www.BritishScienceAssociation-TaysideFife.org